About the Speakers

Dr. Hayley Moseley, ACC, CADDCT, CDP, CDCS, CDCM, CMDCP

Dr. Hayley Moseley is the Director of Education at CC Young Senior Living, a CCRC in Dallas, and the Director of Educational Operations at ActivTimes Consulting and Education. She is a dynamic speaker, instructor, and teacher who utilizes technology to create training programs and videos and utilizes adult learning strategies to ensure attendees engage and retain information. She is an NCCAP-licensed MEPAP instructor, former LeadingAge Texas Leadership Collective facilitator, and past president of the Dallas Activity Association (APAGD).

Amy Jones, AAP - BC

Since earning her CNA in 2000, Amy has dedicated her career to health care, beginning as an activity assistant in 2002 and advancing to Activity Director by 2006. She holds the Advanced Activity Professionals Certification from the national credentialing body, APNCC. A committed advocate for excellence in elder care, Amy is an active member of BRAPA, NCAPA, and NAAP, participating in professional communities at the regional, state, and national levels. Outside of her professional life, Amy has been happily married to Marty Jones for 29 years and is the proud parent of one son, CJ. She enjoys traveling whenever the opportunity arises.

Julie Cooley, BA, ADC-MC, CDP

Julie has been in the Healthcare field for 28 years. She has served in several leadership roles in both her local district The Blue Ridge Activity Professionals and in the North Carolina Activity Professionals. She is currently serving as the Development Director for the National Association of Activity Professionals. Julie is the Healthcare Activity Director and Volunteer Coordinator at Deerfield Episcopal Retirement Community in Asheville, NC. She enjoys life with her husband Pete and their two rescued pups Katie and Tater.

Kaleena Betts, APC/MC, ALEC

Kaleena has worked in the Health Care Activity Field for 10 years and in various levels of care. Currently working as Health Care Activity Coordinator at Deerfield Episcopal Retirement Community. She serves as 1st Vice President for North Carolina Activity Professionals. She also is an active member of the Blue Ridge Activity Professionals (Regional District) and the National Association of Activity Professionals. She has always been passionate about the older generation and especially has a heart for Dementia care. When not working she enjoys life outdoors as "Nature Makes Her Soul Happy" and spending time with her 9-year-old son Krayden.
